Bloxham Grove
ACADEMY

Deputy Head Teacher
Bloxham Grove Academy
Candidate Information Pack
April 2025

Welcome from the Head Teacher

Thank you for your interest in the post of Deputy Head Teacher at Bloxham Grove Academy. I am delighted that you are considering joining us at this very exciting time in these early stages of opening as a new academy.

Bloxham Grove Academy is a new special free school which opened in a purpose-built building in January 2024. We are fortunate in having first-class facilities, a state-of-the-art building, and excellent outdoor spaces in a rural location, providing us with a very special environment for our community to use and enjoy.

The academy provides exemplary education and care for students with Cognition and Learning needs, Autism Spectrum Condition, and Social, Emotional and Mental Health needs. We currently have approximately 77 students on roll. This will increase to 110 students in September 2025 and by 2026 Bloxham Grove Academy will have 120 students on roll between the ages of 7 to 18 across Key Stages 2, 3, 4 and 5.

We are recruiting for a Deputy Head Teacher who will contribute to the growth and development of our new school, and who will be dedicated to supporting our fantastic students to achieve their potential. We are looking for someone with a proven track record of leading sustained school improvement at a senior level and ideally this person will have significant experience of a senior leadership role within special education.

This is a truly exciting opportunity to join the Senior Leadership Team at Bloxham Grove Academy. If you would like to help to shape the culture and ethos of the school and contribute to the development of a community dedicated to improving outcomes for students with SEND, then we would love to receive your application.

I look forward to hearing from you.

The Gallery Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and expects all staff to share this commitment. Any offer of employment with The Gallery Trust is subject to verification of ID and qualifications, satisfactory evidence of the right to work in the UK, health clearance, NCTL and Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Check. The Gallery Trust is an equal opportunities employer, and we welcome applications from candidates from all ethnic and community backgrounds.

The Gallery Trust is a Special Multi Academy Trust which is dedicated to improving outcomes for SEND learners in Oxfordshire. We strive to provide the best possible specialist learning experience for all students.

Our Strategic Aims

- Places where innovation drives learning – our schools have a clear purpose, they educate the whole child and prepare them for adulthood. Everything we do, from our curriculum offer to our pastoral care, is meaningful and driven by the needs of learners.
- Places where relationships drive engagement and achievement – our schools are built around exceptional relationships. We provide excellent experiences, growth, and opportunities for students and staff, and specialist working environments and resources.
- Places which provide exceptional knowledge and support – our schools are supported by a skilled and experienced central team which provides high quality school improvement and central support services.
- Places which inspire and influence – our schools are committed to collaborating with our local and national partners and communities to ensure that children and young people with SEND receive the education and opportunities they deserve.

As we enter the next phase of our development and build on our many successes, we want to embrace future challenges and opportunities. The Trust is on a continuing journey of expansion, growing from a Multi Academy Trust based on a single academy in 2013, to its position as the largest Special Trust in Oxfordshire. There are currently seven special academies in the Trust located throughout Oxfordshire, with an additional academy opening in 2026. The Trust also provides Outreach support and training, teacher training and short breaks provision. The Trust's vision is to continue to expand over the next five years, supporting a community of converter academies, free schools and sponsored academies, and providing outreach and other opportunities. All academies collaborate to share SEND expertise and best practice, and work in partnership with peers who are committed to common aims and goals.

The Board of Trustees believes that by providing the support of highly experienced and specialised school improvement and business teams, school leaders are empowered to focus on the standards of teaching and learning, and in meeting the operational and strategic demands of running their schools.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Deputy Head Teacher

Responsible to: Head Teacher, Bloxham Grove Academy

Job Purpose:

To advise and support the Head Teacher in providing vision, strategic direction, professional leadership and management, to ensure high quality education for all students.

Introduction:

This job description should be read in conjunction with the current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document for those on the leadership spine and the provisions of that document will apply to the post-holder.

The performance of all the duties and responsibilities shown below will be under the reasonable direction of the Head Teacher. The Head Teacher, or other Senior Manager if appropriate, will be mindful of their duty to ensure that the employee has a reasonable workload and sufficient support to carry out the duties of the post.

This job description will be reviewed at least annually, and any changes will be subject to consultation. The school's grievance procedure will be used to resolve any disagreement arising out of the job description. Other relevant policies may be the County Council's Stress as Work policy and the Dignity at Work policy

Teaching and Learning:

- Ensure all students within the school receive an exciting, effective and appropriate education, which supports their needs, as outlined in their Educational and Health Care Plan and in accordance with the school's curriculum framework. In doing this the Deputy Head Teacher will have due regard to the National Curriculum, and the school's aims, together with the policies of the governors.
- Work collaboratively with the Senior Leadership Team to monitor and develop the school's curriculum framework, approaches and recording systems; ensuring delivery of excellent provision, which fully meets students' individual needs.
- The post is a fundamentally non-teaching post, but it is expected that the role will coach teachers, co-teach and model excellent teaching and learning.
- If required, cover for teacher absence across key stages.

The teaching aspect of the post will require:

- The implementation of adaptive teaching methods to meet the individual needs of the students
- The curriculum planning and review cycle is maintained in accordance with the school's planning framework and practices

- On-going assessment of students' work and abilities through comprehensive record keeping, based on the school's agreed format
- Contribution, wherever appropriate, to the display, presentation and celebration of students' work
- Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all students
- Implementing, and modelling, high standards of positive relationships and behaviour management, including knowledge of a wide range of de-escalation strategies, which respond to student's needs and support their emotional regulation.

Leadership and management

Responsibility for the routine organisation and management of the school in line with the school's stated purpose, aims and values, management of documents, policies and development plans.

The role will include operational management of the school on a day-to-day basis and direct line management of class teachers / class teams.

Strategic developments within the Raising Achievement Plan (RAP) and working collaboratively with the senior leadership team on a continuous journey of school development.

An understanding of leadership behaviours and the impact of these on school culture.
Alignment with our values-led approach.

Deputising for the Head Teacher

- Be a member of the Senior Leadership Team, and make a significant contribution to the team's operational and strategic effectiveness
- Represent the leadership team at staff meetings and key events
- Support the development of the curriculum delivery and design
- Lead by example in a way that motivates all involved with the school to achieve their potential
- Responsibility for pastoral care of students
- Contribute to the vision, self-evaluation and strategic plans for the development of the school
- Contribute to the Raising Achievement Plan, taking responsibility for specific priorities and strategic initiative
- Working collaboratively with colleagues across the Gallery Trust.
- Monitor and contribute to the raising of students' standards of achievement and attainment
- Attend and chair meetings
- Be involved in the organisation, planning and delivery of assemblies and events, as and when necessary
- Take responsibility for one's own health, safety and welfare and the health and safety of pupils, visitors and colleagues in accordance with the requirements and locally adopted policies; including taking responsibility for raising concerns with a manager.
- Foster the development of a positive and supportive ethos for students and staff

- Display a high standard of professional behaviour and integrity at all times
- Represent the school at external events
- Carry out other duties as may be reasonably assigned by the Head Teacher
- Deputy designated Safeguarding Lead

Staff Management, Development and Support

- Deliver training and lead staff meetings to include Inset days
- Line manage and coach staff in line with the school's performance management and appraisal frameworks
- Act as personnel link for a group of staff, and taking a whole school interest in staff wellbeing and welfare
- Participate in the recruitment and development of teaching and support staff of the school
- Contribute to good management practice by ensuring positive staff participation, effective communication and procedures
- Support activities that ensure that the ethos of the school enables staff at all levels to embrace learning, in order to improve their own skills

Links with parents, trustees, governors and the wider community

- Encourage full parental participation in the work, life and development of the school and to make sure they are fully informed of their child's progress. To be available to deal with parental concerns and to provide support where possible or refer to other professionals or agencies.
- Provide objective and clear support when required to the governing body in a way that enables it to meet its responsibilities, including attending meetings and preparing reports
- Work in partnership with the Trust, Local Authority, external agencies and other professionals.
- Liaise with other educational establishments in order to promote the continuity of learning, progression and curriculum developments.
- Develop and maintain positive links and relationships with the community, local organisations and employers.
- Have awareness of national initiatives which may be of relevance to the academy e.g. Whole School SEND etc.
