Remembrance Day – Dali Class

On Remembrance Day, Dali Class took time to reflect and remember. We began the day with a two-minute silence at 11am, joining together to honour those who have served and sacrificed.

In the afternoon, we visited Hill End, where we explored the recreated trenches, dressed up in soldier gear, and looked at wartime photographs. With props kindly provided by Richard at Hill End, we even re-enacted one of the photographs, bringing history to life in a memorable and meaningful way.

This visit also linked perfectly to our theme of 'Accessing the Local Community', giving students the opportunity to learn beyond the classroom and engage with their local area in a purposeful, reflective way.

It was a thoughtful and impactful day that helped students to connect with both their community and the importance of remembrance.
