Queen Elizabeth II

The staff and pupils at The Iffley Academy extend their sincerest condolences to The Royal Family on the passing of Her Majesty The Queen, Elizabeth II. For 70 years, Her Majesty was a model of service, duty and respect and, over the coming days and weeks, we will take the opportunity to remember her incredible and profound contribution to our country, the Commonwealth and the world.

Monday 12th September

A reminder that on Monday 12th September The Iffley Academy is closed to students due to teacher training. Students will return to school after the weekend on Tuesday 13th September.

Artist Week

This week we have been working hard in class to establish new routines and to build relationships between staff and students. All of our classes at Iffley Academy are named after Artists so we have been learning about artists and students have been producing some wonderful artwork. In assembly classes presented their work and were very proud of what they have achieved.

On Tuesday we sent two letters to parents and carers, these letters can be found below:
