Letter from Tom Procter-Legg

Dear Parents and Carers,

As you know I am leaving The Iffley Academy at the end of this year and I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued commitment to our community.

Being the Headteacher of our school has been an absolute privilege. It has been inspiring to see children and staff develop, taking on new challenges and growing in confidence. This is what education is truly about!

I want to wish you and your family all the best for the future and I know that Yvette Fay will bring new and exciting opportunities to move the school forward into the new academic year and beyond. I will continue to be in Oxford as I am moving on to study at the University, so I'm sure I will see some of you in the future.

Finally, I would like to thank the staff team here at Iffley for their commitment to our school, their support for myself as a Head over the last five years and their ongoing drive to improve outcomes for young people. The Iffley Academy is an inspiring place to work and I'm glad to have been part of the team!

All the very best.

Tom Procter-Legg
Head Teacher
