

The GALLERY TRUST

A community of special schools

Pastoral Support Worker
Candidate Information
June 2022

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in the post of Pastoral Support Worker (PSW) at Iffley Academy.

Iffley Academy is a very successful academy and has grown in recent years with a current number on roll of 178 students. The Academy has a long and proud history, with a school on the current site in Iffley since the 1960s. Judged as Outstanding in 2015 and 2019, the Academy meets the needs of students with a range of SEND, including Cognition and Learning Needs, Autistic Spectrum Disorder and Social, Emotional and Mental Health Needs. Our learning community is based on respectful relationships with students, created through understanding of their special educational needs, commitment to restorative approaches, and by providing outstanding teaching and pastoral care. This is a warm and caring community, dedicated to equipping students with the skills and knowledge they need to live independent lives within their chosen communities.

Iffley Academy is a member of The Gallery Trust, an expanding Special Needs Multi Academy Trust which is dedicated to improving outcomes for SEND learners in Oxfordshire. The Trust has a national reputation for excellence and is influential in the development of SEND strategy in the county. With six academies currently in the Trust, our aim is to build a community of eight to ten special schools over the next five years.

Please visit our website to find out more about Iffley Academy. If you would like to visit the school to find out more about this exceptional opportunity before you submit your application, you will be most welcome. Our staff and students will be delighted to meet you!

Thank you again for your interest and we look forward to hearing from you.

Tom Procter-Legg
Head Teacher

The Gallery Trust is a Multi Academy Trust which is dedicated to improving outcomes for SEND learners in Oxfordshire. The aim of the Trust is to provide outstanding education and support for young people with special needs and disabilities, enabled through:

- Commitment to special education – striving to provide the best specialist learning experience for all students
- Opportunities for all to learn – ensuring that students and staff have access to learning pathways which enhance their lives
- Genuine respect and value – creating relationships which promote trust, confidence and respect within environments which are safe and secure

The Trust is on a continuing journey of expansion, growing from a Multi Academy Trust based on a single academy in 2013, to its position as the largest Special Trust in Oxfordshire.

The schools in the Trust are:

- Bardwell School, Bicester
- Bloxham Grove Academy, Bloxham, to open in 2022
- A Free Special School in South Oxfordshire, opening date to be confirmed
- Iffley Academy, Oxford
- Mabel Prichard School, Oxford
- Northern House Academy, Oxford
- Orion Academy, Oxford
- Springfield School, Witney
- The Grove@Longford Park, Banbury (satellite provision of Orion Academy)
- The Gallery@Longford Park, Banbury (resource base for mainstream students)

The Trust's vision is to continue to expand over the next five years, supporting a community of converter academies, free schools and sponsored academies. All member academies have the opportunity to share SEND expertise and to work with peers who share common aims and goals.

The Trust is committed to investment in learning, developing system leadership, working in partnership and through a shared vision, enabling all students to reach their full potential.

Iffley Academy is a community special academy for children and young people up to the age of 18 with complex special educational needs and disabilities. All of our students are individuals and we pride ourselves on taking a personalised approach.

Students have Education, Health and Care Plans with a range of needs but primarily we work with students with Moderate Cognition and Learning Difficulties, Autistic Spectrum Disorder and/or Social, Emotional and Mental Health difficulties,

The Academy was judged to be Outstanding at its most recent Ofsted inspection in February 2019, designated as a teaching school in 2018 and is part of an aspirational Multi Academy Trust – The Gallery Trust, a community of special schools, dedicated to providing outstanding education and support for young people with special needs and disabilities, enabled through: Commitment to special education; Opportunities for all to learn; Genuine respect and value.

Students work in class groups where teachers differentiate learning for all students ensuring lessons are inclusive for all.

The school has developed a comprehensive and broad curriculum, which can be found on the school's website. This curriculum, which is underpinned by detailed assessment processes, guides the learning for all students. The school has excellent links with community partners including Oxford University Gardens Libraries and Museums. Further details of this partnership can be seen here

<https://www.glam.ox.ac.uk/iffley-academy-partnership>

We understand that students are able to give their best when their needs are met, when they feel safe and when they understand their relationships with others. When a student starts at our academy every effort is made to ensure that they maximise their progress, enjoy coming to school, make new friends and feel safe. They become part of our community but most importantly their family also becomes part of our community.

Pastoral Support Worker
Iffley Academy, Oxford

Grade 9: £27,741 to £30,451 pro rata per annum
Actual annual salary: £19,153 to £21,024
30 hours a week, term time only (38 weeks a year)
Flexible working options available

Do you have experience of working with children and young people in an educational or therapeutic context and a good understanding of autism and complex barriers to learning? Are you committed to making a real difference to the lives of children and young people and keen to further develop? Then the role of Pastoral Support Worker at Iffley Academy could be just the opportunity you are looking for.

About the Academy

Part of The Gallery Trust, an expanding Special Needs Multi Academy Trust that's dedicated to improving outcomes for SEND learners in Oxfordshire, Iffley Academy is well-established and has a very strong reputation and long and proud history. Judged as Outstanding by Ofsted in 2015 and 2019, we are a warm and welcoming community with a passion for meeting the needs of students with a range of SEND and equipping them with the skills and knowledge they need to live independent lives. Why not come and join our vibrant and thriving Academy in our brand-new school buildings?

About the role

Managing and delivering pastoral and therapeutic support to pupils and taking responsibility for preparing children emotionally and physically to engage with teaching and learning are the main challenges here. A rewarding role that involves reflective supervision, working restoratively and championing restorative practice, we'll rely on you to address the needs of pupils who need help to overcome barriers to learning. As well as providing support for pupils within the class, you'll need to provide behavioural support for pupils on an on-call basis too. And when it comes to supporting colleagues within the class environment or providing accurate and detailed feedback, reports and data and general administrative support using a range of ICT packages, again, we'll count on you.

Positions available (please indicate which position you are applying for on your application form):

- 1 x permanent role
- 1 x one-year fixed term contract (maternity cover)

About you

To succeed, you'll need proven experience of preparing and delivering learning activities for children and young people and working with them 1:1 and in groups. You'll also need Level 2 qualifications, or equivalent, plus knowledge of relevant policies and legislation. The ability to work restoratively, as well as collaboratively and constructively in a team, is important too, as is a flexible and creative approach, including the confidence to lead whole class teaching, if required. Comfortable building links with key stakeholders, you're also used to undertaking Team Teach (restrictive physical interventions), while proficiency using

IT packages that include Microsoft Word and Excel is also required. Possession of a driving licence would be an advantage.

The rewards

As well as an attractive salary and excellent opportunity to further develop, you'll benefit from a comprehensive induction, full training, a Local Government pension scheme, term time only working (with flexible working options and an early finish on Fridays), a free work experience café, a small on-site gym, staff parking and free tea and coffee.

What happens next?

We would be happy to invite you to visit the school. Please contact Ellie Danby on 01865 747606 to arrange a time and date. Alternatively, if you would like to apply immediately, please email your application form to: recruitment@iffleyacademy.co.uk You can download an application form and job pack from our website: <http://iffleyacademy.co.uk/vacancies/current-vacancies/>

Closing date: 12noon 27th June 2022.

Iffley Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and expects all staff to share this commitment. The successful candidate will be subject to an Enhanced DBS check, Occupational Health check and a probationary period of 6 months. The Iffley Academy is an equal opportunities employer and we welcome applications from a range of ethnic backgrounds to represent diversity in line with our school community.
