

1a. Are the capital letters in the sentence below correct? How do you know?

Harry's rabbit is called nibbles.

R

1b. Are the capital letters in the sentence below correct? How do you know?

grace has a fish called Bubbles.

R

2a. Look at the word below:

dad

Write a sentence using the word as a common noun.

A

2b. Look at the word below:

mum

Write a sentence using the word as a proper noun.

A

3a. There is a noun at the start of the sentence below. Is it proper or common? Explain how you know.

Giraffes have long necks.

R

3b. There is a noun at the start of the sentence below. Is it proper or common? Explain how you know.

Saturday is the best day.

R

4a. Are the capital letters in the sentence below correct? How do you know?

Connie's new teacher is mr Royce.

R

4b. Are the capital letters in the sentence below correct? How do you know?

"How long will i be ill?" Rory wondered.

R

5a. Look at the word below:

auntie

Write one sentence using the word as a proper noun. Write another sentence using the word as a common noun.

A

5b. Look at the word below:

uncle

Write one sentence using the word as a proper noun. Write another sentence using the word as a common noun.

A

6a. There is a noun at the start of the sentence below. Is it proper or common? Explain how you know.

Tick Tock Watches sell the watches that I want.

R

6b. There is a noun at the start of the sentence below. Is it proper or common? Explain how you know.

Ice cream goes with all the best puddings.

R

Recognising Common Nouns and Proper Nouns

Recognising Common Nouns and Proper Nouns

7a. Are the capital letters in the sentence below correct? How do you know?

Callum's Sister had a great day at Fountain mountain Water Park.

R

7b. Are the capital letters in the sentence below correct? How do you know?

The Whales from Wales had swum 7,000 Miles to reach their new home.

R

8a. Look at the common noun below:

The zoo was a great experience.

Use the noun in your own sentence, changing it from common to proper.

A

8b. Look at the proper noun below:

Dance School teaches the best routines.

Use the noun in your own sentence, changing it from proper to common.

A

9a. There is a noun at the start of the sentence below. Is it proper or common? Explain how you know.

Professor Perky rushed into the room.

R

9b. There is a noun at the start of the sentence below. Is it proper or common? Explain how you know.

Doctors like to study their books.

R